

Our People

Antonia McIntyre

DIRECTOR

I qualified as a Chartered Accountant in 1998 and have 11 years' experience of both personal and corporate insolvency. One of my key areas of specialism is Members Voluntary Liquidation (MVL), which is assisting shareholders towards a strategic exit in a tax efficient manner, working with key accounting partners. I believe it is critical to ensure individuals within personal insolvency or Directors in corporate cases receive a high quality tailored solution, to suit their circumstances. I volunteer monthly at free debt clinics which mlm run at our charitable partner SAMH's drop-in facility in Glasgow.

Derek Lyttle

MANAGER

I have over 20 years experience in both corporate and personal insolvency, having worked for various firms, including a Big 4. I have dealt with most types of corporate and personal insolvency assignments over the years, recently though, I have focused on the personal insolvency market and I have extensive experience in offering pre-insolvency advice to individuals, sole traders and partnerships. I believe in offering the best possible advice and in ensuring that clients are dealt with promptly and courteously.

Gordon Blair

DEBT ADVISOR

I have been involved in Personal Insolvency for around six years now. I took on the role as debt advisor in mlm in January 2009 and spend my time dealing with potential clients over the phone and face to face, advising on the best possible solution for each case.

Ian Brown

DAS APPROVED MONEY ADVISOR

Prior to my role in Money Advice I have seven years' experience of working in financial services delivering financial and mortgage advice and also in compliance. Before joining mlm I worked for Citizen's Advice and Rights Fife as a Money Adviser training in all aspects of money advice including becoming approved to set up the Debt Arrangement Scheme (DAS). At mlm my area of expertise is the DAS, which is part of Scottish government legislation to allow debtors to repay their debts over a period of up to 10 years.

Lynn Frew

SENIOR ADMINISTRATOR

I have been working in Insolvency for around 10 years. Having recently passed my CPPI exam, I specialise in Personal Insolvency and I am Senior Administrator in the Personal Solutions Team.
